To whom it may concern:

I would like to recommend Dianne Little for whatever assignment you might have in mind for her.

I have had the opportunity to work with her at two levels, in both business and in a professional association.

Her company has done work for the Chamber, and Dianne personally has been the graphic designer on the printed material we have ordered. She is skilled and creative, and extremely dependable in getting accomplished what you want when you want it. She knows her business.

At the association level, I have served with Dianne on the Board of Directors of Los Angeles Advertising Women, and on many of its committees with her. She is enthusiastic, willing, and hard working on behalf of the organization and the good it does for the advertising industry.

Dianne is a dedicated professional, and I have no hesitation about recommending her for whatever you require.

Sincerely yours,

Jackie Johns
